Call for Presentations

Now in its 20th year, the SMPS Southern Regional Conference (SRC) is an annual event focused on providing top-notch professional development opportunities through networking and education. Traditionally, the conference is designed to feature A/E/C (Architecture/Engineering/Construction) market trends, best practices and marketing strategies. During two and a half days of networking and educational programming, attendees have the opportunity to learn from some of the nation's top professional services marketers.

The SMPS SRC 2023 will be held January 18 - 20 at The Royal Sonesta Hotel in New Orleans, Louisiana, and the conference planning committee is now accepting applications for speaker positions.

TOPICS

Because of the many hats A/E/C marketers wear at their firms, we're committed to providing SMPS SRC attendees with presenters whose specialties range from proposals and business development to brand management and marketing team leadership. All topics pertaining to A/E/C marketing will be considered, but ultimately, we're looking for marketing authorities who can present new ideas in fresh ways that will make a lasting impact on our conference attendees.

PROGRAM FORMATS

Educational programs will include approximately 21 sessions running 45 minutes each (or longer for workshops, as approved by committee).

Program formats include the following:

Lecture: While lectures typically consist of a speaker providing the attendees with information, this format should incorporate a 10-minute question-and-answer segment to actively engage learners.

Panel Discussion: Panel discussions give attendees the opportunity to hear three to four viewpoints on a specific topic. Concluding with an extensive question-and-answer session, this format gives attendees direct access to experts. Panels are limited in size to no more than one moderator and three panelists.

Workshops: Workshops are hands-on learning experiences that use group discussion, exercises, demonstrations, and case studies.

EXPECTED SPEAKER ATTENDANCE

Selected speakers are expected to provide ample time between their arrival to and departure from the conference in order to accommodate their respective presentation time. We recommend arriving to the conference the day/night before the designated presentation time and leaving late in the day following the presentation, or speakers are welcome to stay for the duration of the conference at their own expense.
